

SALVageID
Recycle your mobile phones

international DEVELOPMENT UK

Don't let your old mobile go to waste

- 1 Phone
Buys a fruit tree for a community.
- 3 Phones
Provides a family with clean water for life.
- 4 Phones
Provides a home and education for a child for a month.
- 5 Phones
Resources education and campaigning against human trafficking and provides care for victims.
- 15 Phones
Provides psycho-social support for vulnerable people affected by HIV/AIDS.
- 40 Phones
Provides a solidarity group with a loan to start their own business.
- 175 Phones
Can fund the building of a well in India.

(Based on an average of £4 per phone)

➔ For more information see:
www.salvationarmy.org.uk/salvageid

Bring your spare phones to:

Send your collected phones to:
The Salvation Army, Freepost London 16281, London, WC1N 3BR.
If you have collected more than 30 mobiles call 0800 298 9069 to arrange a free collection.

The Salvation Army is a Christian church and a registered charity (England and Wales No. 214779 and Scotland No. SC009359)