

A tribute from Allan's brother-in-law Neville:

Allan you will always be alive in our hearts.

Our memories of you will be that of great compassion. You were always happy, dedicated and willing to lend a helping hand when needed.

Your love of my sister is second to none and you were always there to help her. We cannot understand how suddenly you have been taken from us and only God knows why. You are too young.

Our two sons are totally sad and shocked because you were always friends to them even from many miles away - they remember the good times like the times spent in Eltham on the miniature trains. I also remember the good times of playing cricket together, the family BBQ's and the standard Thursday night family get together. And only last year you were with us in Australia and everything was fine.

I am sorry that we cannot be there today especially to say farewell. We shall miss you but one day we shall meet again. My thoughts and my heart go out to my sister Vivien who has been a most devoted wife for over 39 years.

Vivien be strong and remember the good times - life can be cruel and this has happened to you. But it has happened for a reason and only God knows why.

Take care and we are all thinking of you on this sad day
Love Pam, Neville, Chris and Andrew
